After the above-mentioned non-public offering of A-share issue, the corporate equity structure is as below:

The total number of ordinary shares is 10,216,274,357, of which the promoter China Ocean Shipping Company Limited holds 5,472,806,911 shares, accounting for 53.57% of the total shares, H-share shareholders hold 2,580,600,000 shares, accounting for 25.26% of the corporate equity, and A-share shareholders hold 2,162,867,446 shares, accounting for 21.17% of the total shares.

The share capital of the Company is comprised of 10,216,274,357 ordinary shares, including 7,635,674,357 domestic investment shares (74.74% of the total ordinary shares) and 2,580,600,000 foreign investment shares listed outside the People's Republic of China (25.26% of the total ordinary shares). The promoter, China Ocean Shipping Company Limited, is the controlling shareholder of the Company.

Article 22 After the plan to issue H shares and A shares has been approved by China Securities Regulatory Commission, the Board of Directors of the Company may arrange for implementation of such plan by means of separate issues.

Article 17
Mandatory
Provisions

The Company's plan for separate issuance of H shares and A shares in accordance with the preceding paragraph can be implemented separately within 15 months of the date of approval by China Securities Regulatory Commission.

Article 23 If the Company issues H shares and A shares separately within the total number of shares specified in the issuance plan, each of the issues shall be fully subscribed to for once. If special circumstances make it impossible for the issue to be fully subscribed to for once, the shares may be issued in installments, subject to the prior approval of China Securities Regulatory Commission.

Article 18
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 24 The registered capital of the Company is RMB¥ 10,216,274,357.

Article 19
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 25 The Company may approve capital increases depending on its business and development requirements in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company.

Article 20

 - (2) merger with other companies holding shares of the Company;
 - (3) incentive shares granted to the staff of the Company;
 - (4) circumstances where any shareholder holds different opinion with regard to the resolution of the general meeting on merger or division of the Company and requests the Company to purchase his shares;
 - (5) other circumstances which laws or administrative regulations so permit.
- Saving for the foregoing situations, the Company shall not engage in the sale and purchase of the Company's shares.
- The Company shall repurchase its own issued and outstanding shares in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations and provisions of Articles 30 to 33 hereof.
- Article 30 If the Company is to repurchase its own shares upon the approval by the relevant state authorities, it may proceed in any of the following manners: Article 25
Mandatory
Provisions
- (1) issue a repurchase offer, on a pro rata basis, to all the shareholders of the Company;
 - (2) repurchase through open transactions on a securities exchange;
 - (3) repurchase by agreement outside a securities exchange;
 - (4) other manners which laws, administrative regulations or the securities administration authority of the State Council so permits. Article 24
Guidance for the
Articles

Article 31 If the Company is to repurchase shares by an agreement outside a securities exchange, prior approval shall be obtained from the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the provisions under the Company's Articles of Association. Upon prior approval by the shareholders' general meeting obtained in the same manner, the Company may rescind or vary contracts concluded in the manner set forth above or waive any of its rights under such contracts.

Article 26
Mandatory
Provisions

Contracts for the repurchase of shares mentioned in the previous paragraph shall include (but not be limited to) agreements whereby repurchasing obligations are undertaken and repurchasing rights are acquired.

The Company shall not assign contracts for the repurchase of its own shares or any of its rights thereunder.

Article 32 After the Company repurchases its shares in accordance with the laws, it shall write off or transfer the shares within the period specified by law and administrative regulations. After the Company purchases the shares in accordance with laws, it shall write off the shares within 10 days after the repurchase if the purchase falls within Article 29 (1) of the Articles; it shall transfer or write off the shares within six months if the purchase falls within Article 29 (2) and (4) of the Articles; it shall transfer to employees within 1 year if it falls within Article 29(3) of the Articles.

Article 27
Mandatory
Provisions
Article 142
Company Law

The amount of the Company's registered capital shall be reduced by the total par value of the shares canceled.

Article 33 Unless the Company has already entered into liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in repurchasing its issued and outstanding shares:

Article 28
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) If the Company repurchases shares at their par value, the amount thereof shall be deducted from the book balance of distributable profit and/or from the proceeds of a new issue of shares made to repurchase the old shares;
- (2) If the Company repurchases shares at a price higher than their par value, the portion to the extent of their par value shall be deducted from the book balance of distributable profit and/or from the proceeds of a new issue of shares made to repurchase the old shares; and the portion in excess of the par value shall be handled by the following methods:
 - (i) if the shares repurchased were issued at their par value, the amount shall be deducted from the book balance of distributable profit;
 - (ii) if the shares repurchased were issued at a price higher than their par value, the amount shall be deducted from the book balance of distributable profit and/or the proceeds of a new issue of shares made to repurchase the old shares; however, the amount deducted from the proceeds of the new issue of shares shall not exceed the total premium obtained at the time of the issuance of the old shares nor shall it exceed the amount of the Company's capital common reserve account (including the premium from new issue of shares) at the time of repurchase;

- (3) The sums paid by the Company for the purposes set forth below shall be paid out of the Company's distributable profits:
 - (i) acquisition of the right to repurchase its own shares;
 - (ii) modification of any contract for repurchase of its own shares;
 - (iii) release from any of its obligations under any repurchase contract.
- (4) After the total par value of the cancelled shares has been deducted from the registered capital of the Company in accordance with relevant regulations, the amount deducted from the distributable profit to repurchase shares to the extent of the total par value shall be included in the Company's capital common reserve account.

CHAPTER 5. FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR THE PURCHASE OF SHARES

Article 34 The Company or its subsidiaries shall not at any time provide any financial assistance in any form to purchasers or prospective purchasers of the shares in the Company. Purchasers of shares in the Company as referred to above shall include persons that directly or indirectly undertake obligations for the purpose of purchasing shares in the Company.

Article 29
Mandatory
Provisions

The Company or its subsidiaries shall not at any time provide any financial assistance in any form to the above obligors in order to reduce or discharge their obligations.

The provisions of this Article shall not apply to the circumstances described in Article 36 hereof.

Article 35 For the purposes of this Chapter, the term "financial assistance" shall include (but not be limited to) the financial assistance in the forms set out below:

Article 30
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) gift;
- (2) guarantee (including the undertaking of liability or provision of property by the guarantor in order to secure the performance of the obligation by the obligor), indemnity (excluding indemnity arising from the Company's own fault), release or waiver of rights;
- (3) provision of a loan or conclusion of a contract under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of the other party to the contract, or the novation of or the assignment of rights under such loans or contracts;
- (4) financial assistance in any other form when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or if such assistance would lead to a major reduction in the Company's net assets.

For the purposes of this Chapter, the term "undertake obligations" shall include the undertaking of an obligation by the obligor by concluding a contract or making an arrangement (whether or not such a contract or arrangement is enforceable and whether or not such an obligation is undertaken by the obligor individually or jointly with any other person) or by changing its financial position in any other way.

Article 36 The acts listed below shall not be regarded as acts prohibited under Article 34 hereof:

Article 31
Mandatory
Provisions

The instrument of appointment shall specify that in the absence of instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit. Article 62 Mandatory Provisions
- Article 79 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or loss of capacity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the relevant shares, as long as the Company did not receive any written notice of the event before the relevant meeting commenced. Article 63 Mandatory Provisions
- Article 80 When the matters relating to the connected transactions are being considered at the shareholders' general meeting, the connected shareholders shall not participate in the voting, and the number of voting shares represented by them will not be counted in the total number of valid votes; the announcement of the general meeting resolutions shall fully disclose the voting by the non-connected shareholders. Article 79 Guidance for the Articles
- The foregoing connected shareholders are the shareholders of the following situations: related parties or non-related parties who have relations with a person of or a connected person of that person of major interest in the transaction pending resolution according to the securities rules and its amendments at any time.
- Article 81 Proxies, when attending the general shareholders' meeting on behalf of the shareholders, shall show their proof of identity and power of attorney signed by appointors or their legal representatives. The power of attorney shall stipulate the date of issuance. The legal representative of corporate body shareholders, when attending the meeting, shall show their own identification cards, and proof of his legal representative identity such as legal representative ID and share ownership certificate; the appointed proxies, attending the meeting on behalf of corporate body shareholders, shall show their own identification cards, and proof of the appointor's shareholder identity such as power of attorney signed by legal representative and stamped by the corporate body shareholder, and share ownership certificate.
- Article 82 The Board of Directors, independent directors and certain qualified shareholders may collect voting rights at a general meeting from the shareholders of a listed company. The person who publicly collects voting rights of the shareholders of a listed company shall comply with the provisions by the relevant regulatory authorities and the stock exchanges on which the company is listed. The Company must not set a minimum limit on shareholding ratio in the collection of voting rights. Article 1 (3) Public Shareholders Article 78 Guidance for the Articles
- Article 83 Resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting can be ordinary resolutions or special resolutions. Article 64 Mandatory Provisions
- Ordinary resolutions by the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than half of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Special resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

- Article 84 When voting at a shareholders' general meeting, a shareholder (including his or her proxy) shall exercise his or her voting right by virtue of the number of voting shares represented by her/him. Saving for the stipulations of Article 110 and Article 140 on adopting a cumulative voting system in electing the directors and supervisors, each share shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote.

- (1) One or several copies of a written proposal of the same format and content with a clear statement of the topics of the extraordinary general meeting shall be signed and submitted to the Board of Directors for convening an extraordinary general meeting. In accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, and the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association, the Board of Directors shall give a written feedback as for the agreement or disagreement for convening an extraordinary or class meeting within 10 days after the receipt of the above-mentioned written request. General Meeting
Rules
- (2) In case the board agrees to convene an extraordinary or class meeting, the Board of Directors shall issue a notice calling for an extraordinary or class general meeting within 5 days of the relevant board resolution. In case changes are made to the original proposal, agreement on the changes shall be sought from the original proposing party.

- (3) In case the Board of Directors declines the proposal, the reasons for declining shall be explained and announced.
- (4) In case the Board of Directors disagrees with the Supervisory Board on convening an extraordinary or class meeting, or it does not give any feedback within 10 days after receiving the proposal, the board shall be deemed as incapable of performing or not performing its duty to convene a shareholders' general meeting. Under this circumstance, the Supervisory Board shall convene and chair the shareholders' general meeting at its discretion. Then the procedures of convening, shall, as much as possible, be the same as those adopted by the Board of Directors.
- (5) In case the Board of Directors disagrees with a shareholder on convening an extraordinary or class general meeting, the shareholder shall propose in writing to the Supervisory Board for convening the extraordinary or class meeting.

When the Supervisory Board agrees to convene the extraordinary or class meeting, the Supervisory Board shall issue a notice calling for the extraordinary or class meeting within five days after the receipt of the proposal. In case changes are made to the original proposal, agreement on the changes shall be sought from the original proposing party.

In case the Supervisory Board fails to issue a notice calling for the extraordinary or class meeting within the stipulated period, the inaction shall be deemed as not convening and chairing the extraordinary or class meeting. Shareholders individually or collectively holding more than 10 percent of the Company's shares for more than 90 consecutive days in a row may convene and chair the extraordinary or class meeting. Then the procedures of convening, shall, as much as possible, be the same as those adopted by the Board of Directors.

When the Supervisory Board or shareholders convene the meeting in accordance with the stipulation of the prior provisions, the board shall be informed in writing and the filing procedures shall be made to the competent authority in accordance with the applicable rules. The Board of Directors and its secretary shall stand cooperative for the meeting and the Board of Directors shall provide the register of shareholders. The Company shall defray the reasonable expenses as they arise from the meeting and such expenses shall be deducted by the Company from the fund of the directors whose behavior constituted a breach of duty.

Article 93 Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened and chaired by the chairman of the board. Article 99 If the Company intends to vary or abrogate the rights of class shareholders, it may do so only after such variation or abrogation has been approved by way of a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting and by a separate shareholders' meeting convened by the affected class shareholders in accordance with Articles 101 to 106 hereof. Article 79
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 100 The rights of shareholders of a certain class shall be deemed to be varied or abrogated in the following circumstances: Article 80
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) an increase or decrease in the number of shares of such class, or increase or decrease in the number of shares of a class having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (2) the change of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, or the conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of such class or the grant of the right to such a change;
- (3) the removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;
- (4) the reduction or removal of a dividend preference, or a property distribution preference during liquidation of the Company, attached to shares of such class;
- (5) the addition, removal or reduction of share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, preemptive rights and rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of such class;
- (6) the removal or reduction of rights to receive amounts payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of such class;
- (7) the creation of a new class of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;
- (8) the imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer or ownership of shares of such a class,
- (9) the issuance of rights to subscribe to or convert into shares of such a class or another class;

- (10) the increase in the rights and privileges of shares of another class;
- (11) restructuring of the Company as would cause shareholders of different classes to bear disproportionate liabilities under the restructuring;
- (12) the amendment or cancellation of the provisions hereof.

Article 101 Any class shareholders affected, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at shareholders’ general meetings, shall have right to vote at class shareholders’ meetings in respect of matters referred to in items (2) to (8) or (11) to (12) of Article 100, except for interested shareholders.

Article 81
Mandatory
Provisions

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term “interested shareholders” shall have the following meaning:

- (1) if, pursuant to Article 30 of this Articles of Association, the Company has issued, on a pro rata basis, a repurchase offer to all shareholders or has repurchased its own shares through open transactions on a securities exchange, controlling shareholders as defined in Article 60 hereof shall be “interested shareholders”;
- (2) if, pursuant to Article 30 of this Articles of Association, the Company has repurchased its own shares by agreements outside a securities exchange, holders of shares to which such agreements relate shall be “interested shareholders”;
- (3) shareholders that, under a proposed restructuring of the Company, would bear liabilities in a proportion smaller than the liabilities borne by other shareholders of the same class or shareholders that have an interest in a proposed restructuring of the Company different from the interest in such proposed restructuring of other shareholders of the same class shall be “interested shareholders”.

Article 102 Resolutions of a class shareholders’ meeting may be passed only by more than two-thirds of the voting rights of that class present at the meeting in accordance with Article 101 hereof.

Article 82
Mandatory
Provisions

In accordance with applicable securities listing rules (as amended from time to time), when any shareholder is required to waive to vote on any specific resolution of a class shareholders’ meeting or be limited only to vote for or against any specific resolution of a class shareholders’ meeting, any vote against this regulation or restraint by such a shareholder or its representative shall not be counted.

Notice shall be given to all executive directors and external directors within the time limit as set out in Article 117 hereof and sufficient information shall be given at the same time. Directors may request for provision of supplementary information. When a quarter of directors or more than two external directors regard the the information available as insufficient or reasoning as implicit, they may jointly propose to postpone the meeting or delay the discussion of some matters in the meeting. The Board of Directors shall adopt the relevant proposal.

Art. 3 Advices

When a director has come to a meeting, he shall be deemed to have been served with a notice of the meeting if he fails to state he did not receive the notice of the meeting before or when attending the meeting.

A routine meeting or extraordinary general meeting of the Board of Directors may be held in the form of teleconference or by means of telecommunications as long as the directors present can clearly hear the speech made by other directors and exchange views. All the directors present shall be deemed as attending such a meeting in person.

Article 119 A board meeting shall only be convened if more than half of the Board of Directors are present (including any directors appointed in writing pursuant to Article 120 to attend the meeting as the representatives of other directors). Each director has one vote. Any resolution shall be passed by affirmative votes of more than half of all the Board of Directors. In the case of equal division of votes, the chairman of the Board of Directors is entitled to an additional vote.

Provisions

Article 120 Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be attended by the directors in person. If a director cannot attend a meeting for any reason, he may authorise in writing another director to attend the meeting on his behalf. The authorisation shall indicate the name of proxy, the matters involved, the scope of authority and the valid term.

Article 94
Mandatory
Provisions

A director who attends a meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the rights of a director within the scope of authority granted. If a director fails to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors and has not appointed a representative to attend on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights in respect of that meeting

In case that a director has failed to be present in person at any two consecutive board meetings without authorizing another director to be present at the board meeting on his behalf, he shall be considered as unable to fulfill his responsibilities as a director, and the Board of Directors shall accordingly recommend the shareholders' general meeting to make a replacement.

The expenses incurred by directors to attend the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be borne by the Company. Such expenses include transport cost from the address of the directors to the venue of the meeting and accommodation during the meeting. Rental of the venue, local transport expenses and other miscellaneous expenses shall also be paid by the Company.

Article 121 The Board of Directors may accept proposals in writing instead of holding a meeting of the Board of Directors but the draft of such a proposal must be sent to each director by person, mail, cable, facsimile or email. If the Board of Directors has distributed the proposal to all the directors and the number of directors who agree on the proposal by giving their signatures satisfy the quorum required for decision making and the proposal is submitted to secretary of the board in the aforesaid way, it shall become a resolution of the Board of Directors and no further meeting of the Board of Directors shall be required.

Article 122 The Board of Directors shall keep minutes in Chinese of resolutions passed at meetings of the Board of Directors and meetings of the Board of Directors that have not been convened. Opinions of the independent (non-executive) directors shall be clearly stated in the resolutions of the Board of Directors. The minutes of each board meeting shall be provided to all the directors to review promptly. Directors who wish to amend or supplement the minutes shall submit the proposed amendments to the chairman in writing within one week after the receipt of the meeting minutes. The minutes shall be signed by the directors present at the meeting and the person who recorded the minutes after they are finalised. The minutes of board meetings shall be kept at the premises of the Company in the PRC and a complete copy of the minutes shall be sent to each director promptly. The meeting minutes shall be kept for at least 10 years.

Article 125 A director may resign before his term of office expires. Any director who intends to resign shall submit a written letter of resignation to the Board of Directors. In addition to this, any independent director who intends to resign shall explain the issues and circumstances related to his resignation or any other issues or circumstances that he considers necessary to be brought to the attention of the Company's shareholders or creditors.

Article 100
Guidance for the
Articles

If a director's resignation results in the number of members of the Board of Directors falling below the minimum required quorum of the Board of Directors, that director's resignation shall not come into effect until the vacancy resulting from his resignation is filled by his successor. Other directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting to elect a new director therefor as soon as possible. Before such a meeting makes its resolution on the election, the functions and the powers of the relevant director who has tendered his resignation and those of the other members of the Board of Directors shall be subject to reasonable restrictions.

If an independent director's resignation results in the proportion of the then remaining independent directors to the total number of directors in the board being less than the minimum ratio required by any relevant regulatory authorities, that independent director's resignation shall not come into effect until his vacancy is filled by his successor.

Except for such circumstances, the letter of resignation shall take effect when the same is served to the Board of Directors.

CHAPTER 11. INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

Independent
Directors'
Opinion

Article 126 An independent director candidate of the Company shall be nominated by the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Board, or shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the total number of shares carrying the right to vote, and shall be elected by a shareholders' general meeting of the Company.

- (1) The party nominating any independent director candidate shall have obtained the nominee's consent prior to the nomination, and shall be fully aware of such particulars of the nominee in terms of his occupation, academic background, professional title, detailed work experience and all information regarding his positions held concurrently and be responsible for providing to the Company written materials in relation to such particulars. The candidate shall undertake to the Company in writing that he agrees to accept the nomination, and that the disclosed information about him is true and complete. He shall also undertake to conscientiously perform his responsibilities as a director upon being elected;

- (2) The party nominating any independent director shall give his opinions as to the nominee's qualification and independency as an independent director. If required under any applicable laws, regulations and/or the relevant listing rules, the nominee shall make a public announcement in accordance with such requirements stating that there exists no relationship between the Company and him that affects his independent and objective judgment;
- (3) If the nomination of an independent director candidate occurs before the meeting of the Board of Directors, the written materials pertaining to the particulars of the nominee described in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall, if required under applicable laws, regulations and/or relevant listing rules, be announced together with the resolution of the Board of Directors in accordance with such requirements;
- (4) If an extempore motion is put forward at a general meeting for the election of any independent director by shareholder(s) who, individually or jointly, hold(s) more than 3% of the total number of shares of the Company carrying the voting right, or by the Supervisory Board, the following documents shall be submitted to the Company 20 days before the shareholders' general meeting: the written notice of the intent to nominate a director candidate and the nominee expressing his willingness to accept the nomination, and the written materials pertaining to the particulars of the nominee and the nominee's undertakings as mentioned in the preceding sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article;
- (5) Before the shareholders' general meeting for the election of the independent director, if required under any applicable laws, regulations and/or the relevant listing rules, the Company shall submit the relevant materials concerning the nominee to the securities regulatory authority of the State Council, relevant local official agencies of the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and the stock exchanges on which the Company's shares are listed. If the Board of Directors disputes the particulars pertaining to the nominee, it shall also submit its written opinions to the aforementioned organisations. If the securities regulatory authority of the State Council objects to a nominee, such a person shall not be an independent director candidate. When the shareholders' general meeting is convened for the election of the independent director, the Board of Directors of the Company shall explain whether the securities regulatory authority of the State Council objects to the relevant nominee.

Article 127 The independent director shall meet the following basic requirements:

- (4) He shall have more than five (5) years' working experience in the fields of Law or Economics or other working experience necessary for the discharge of the duties of an independent director;
- (5) He shall meet other conditions provided for under the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 128 The independent director shall be independent. Unless otherwise provided for under applicable laws, regulations and/or the relevant listing rules, the following persons shall not be the Company's independent directors:

- (1) Staff of the Company or its subsidiaries, their lineal relatives or persons who have a significant social relationship with any of them (lineal relatives refer to the spouse, parents and children; and significant social relationship refers to relationship of brothers and sisters, parents-in-law, children-in-law, spouses of brothers and sisters, and the spouse's brothers and sisters);
- (2) Any natural person who directly or indirectly holds more than 1% of the Company's issued and outstanding shares, or any natural person shareholder who is among the ten largest shareholders of the Company, and his lineal relatives;
- (3) Any employee of any corporate shareholder that directly or indirectly holds more than 5% of the Company's issued and outstanding shares, or any employee of any of the five largest corporate shareholders of the Company, and his lineal relatives;
- (4) Any person who was a person mentioned in any of the aforesaid three categories during the last one year;
- (5) Any person who provides financial, legal or advisory services to the Company or to its subsidiaries;
- (6) Any person who has been determined as being ineligible for an independent director by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council.

Article 129 The Board of Directors shall propose to the shareholders' general meeting to dismiss or replace the independent director who has failed to attend the board meeting in person for twice consecutively without authorizing another director to attend on his behalf, or has failed to attend the board meeting in person three times consecutively. Except for the persons mentioned above and those stipulated under the Company Law as being ineligible to serve as an independent director, the independent director shall not be dismissed before the expiry of his term of office without reason. The Company shall disclose the early dismissal as a matter of special disclosure item, while the independent director concerned who believes that his dismissal has been unreasonably made may make a public announcement.

Article 130 In addition to the functions and powers stipulated by the Company Law, other relevant laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, the independent directors shall have the following specific functions and powers:

- (1) In respect of major connected transactions (as determined by the criteria announced by a competent regulatory authority from time to time) that shall be considered at the shareholders' general meeting as required by the law, regulations and/or relevant listing rules, and in respect of appointment and removal of the Company's accounting firm (if required under applicable laws, regulations and/or relevant listing rules), the relevant requirements shall be observed; more than half of the independent directors are required to approve the relevant transactions and shall be put forward to the Board of Directors for review. The resolution of the Board of Directors in respect of the Company's connected transactions shall not become effective until each independent director has signed for the resolution. Before any independent director arrives at his decision, he may employ agency firms to provide an independent financial report as the basis of his decision;
- (2) Independent directors shall propose to the Board of Directors in respect of proposals to appoint or dismiss an accounting firm;
- (3) Independent directors may request to convene extraordinary general meetings;
- (4) Independent directors shall propose to convene board meetings;
- (5) Independent directors shall appoint external auditors and consulting advisors;
- (6) Independent directors may publicly canvass for votes from shareholders prior to shareholders' general meetings;
- (7) Independent directors may directly report to the shareholders' general meeting, the securities regulatory authority of the State Council, and other relevant authorities.

Independent directors shall obtain the consent from more than half of the total number of independent directors in the exercise of their functions and powers provided for under sub-paragraphs (2), (4), (6) and (7) of this Article; two or more independent directors may exercise their functions and powers provided for under sub-paragraph (3) and the exercise of functions and powers provided for under sub-paragraph (5) of this Article be consented by all the independent directors.

Article 6 Advices

Article 131 In addition to exercising the above-mentioned functions and powers, the independent directors shall provide independent opinions to the Board of Directors or the shareholders' general meetings concerning the following issues:

- (1) Nomination, appointment and dismissal of directors;

- Article 193 The profit distribution policy of the Company is as follows:
- Article 154
Guidance for the
Articles
- (1) Principles: The Company should implement vigorous profit distribution policies and value investors’ reasonable investment return and the Company’s sustainable development to maintain the continuity and stability of profit distribution policies. The cumulative profit distribution in cash by the Company in the last three years should not in principle be less than 30% of the average annual distributable profits in the last three years.

- (2) Intervals: In principle, the Company distributes profit once per year. Under permitted circumstances, the Board of Directors of the Company may recommend the Company to distribute interim cash dividend according to the earnings and capital requirement of the Company.
- (3) Decision-making mechanisms and procedures: The profit distribution proposal of the Company shall be formulated and reviewed by the Board of Directors and submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval. In proposing a profit distribution plan, the Board shall take into consideration the opinions of relevant stakeholders, especially independent directors and minority shareholders. Independent directors shall express clearly their opinions in regard to the profit distribution proposal. The Supervisory Board shall supervise the implementation of the profit distribution proposal.
- (4) In case of no proposal of profit distribution in cash being made at any profitable year with available distributable profit of the Company, the Board of Directors shall explain the reasons and the independent directors shall express their opinions clearly. Disclosure in this regard shall be made in a timely manner by independent directors. Upon the approval by the Board of Directors, it shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meetings for review and the Board of Directors shall provide explanation at the shareholders' general meeting.
- (5) When determining the particulars of the cash dividend proposal of the Company, the Board of Directors shall study and discuss the timing, conditions as well as the minimum ratio of the cash dividend, conditions on adjustments and other factors as required for making the decisions. The independent directors shall express clearly their opinions. The independent directors may solicit opinions of minority shareholders, put forth profit distribution proposals and submit it directly to the Board for consideration and approval. Before considering the particulars of the profit distribution proposal at a general meeting, the Company shall communicate with the shareholders proactively, especially the minority shareholders, through various channels (including but not limited to hotlines, mailbox to the Secretary of the Board of Directors and inviting minority investors to attend the meeting), in order to gather sufficient opinions from the minority shareholders and respond to their concerns in a timely manner.
- (6) Adjustments to cash dividend policy: The Company shall strictly implement the cash dividend policy stipulated in the Articles of Association of the Company and the cash dividend proposal considered and approved at the shareholders' general meetings. Necessary adjustments or amendments to the cash dividend policy stipulated in the Articles of Association of the Company shall only be made after detailed discussion and the corresponding decision-making procedure according to the Articles of Association of the Company and approval shall be obtained by more than two thirds of the total voting rights present at the shareholders' general meeting.

- (7) The Company shall disclose in detail in its annual report the formulation and implementation of the cash dividend policy, and state the following matters, including: (1) whether the policy is in compliance with the requirements of the Articles of Association or the resolutions passed at the shareholders' general meeting; (2) whether the basis and ratio of the distribution of dividends are clear; (3) whether the relevant decision-making procedures and systems are sound; (4) whether the independent directors have duly performed their duties; (5) whether there are enough channels for minority shareholders to express their opinions and concerns, and whether their legal interests are sufficiently protected. If the cash dividend policy is to be adjusted or amended, it shall be disclosed in detail whether the conditions and procedures of such adjustments or amendment is in compliance with laws and transparent.

The Company's Board of Directors must complete the distribution of dividends (in cash or in the form of shares) within two months after the resolution approving the relevant profit distribution proposal has been passed at a shareholders' general meeting.

Article 194 The Company may distribute dividends in the following forms:

Article 139
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) cash;
- (2) shares;
- (3) combination of cash and shares.

If the Company satisfies the conditions for cash dividends, priority shall be given to profit distribution by means of cash dividends.

Conditions of distributing dividends in cash: If the Company has made a profit for that year, and after compensating for losses in previous years and withdrawing reserves according to law, the cumulative undistributed profits is positive, and auditors issue an audit report with no qualified opinion for the Company's financial report for the year, the Company shall distribute dividends in cash in priority.

If the Company distributes dividend in cash, it shall follow the rules below:

- (1) Where the Company is in a developed stage with no substantial capital expenditure arrangement, the dividend to be distributed in cash shall not be less than 80% of the total profit distribution;
- (2) Where the Company is in a developed stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangement, the dividend to be distributed in cash shall not be less than 40% of the total profit distribution;
- (3) Where the Company is in a developing stage with substantial capital expenditure arrangement, the dividend to be distributed in cash shall not be less than 20% of the total profit distribution.

Where it is difficult to identify the development stage of the Company but there is substantial capital expenditure arrangement, dividend distribution may be dealt with in accordance with the preceding provisions. Significant capital expenditure refers to: the proposed external investment, acquisition of assets (including land use rights) or purchase of equipment by the Company in the coming twelve months with accumulated expenses amounting to or exceeding 10% of the latest audited net assets of the Company.

Conditions of distributing dividends in shares: After taking into account of the distributable profits, common reserve fund and cash flow status, the Company may distribute dividends in the form of shares for profit distribution, provided that there are sufficient liquidity for cash dividend distribution and a reasonable shareholding structure, and the Board considers that distributing dividends in shares will be in the interest of all Shareholders of the Company as a whole. The dividend payout ratio shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration and approval after being reviewed and adopted by the Board of Directors.

The amount of dividends to be distributed shall be determined based on the lower of the after-tax profits set out in the audited financial statements prepared pursuant to China Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises and Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards.

Article 195 The Company shall pay dividends and other sums in cash to holders of A shares in Renminbi and payment for dividends and other sums in cash to holders of H shares shall be calculated and declared in Renminbi but paid in Hong Kong dollar. The foreign currency for payment for dividends, in cash and other sums to holders of H Shares shall be disposed of under the relevant provisions of foreign exchange management of the State.

Article 196 Unless otherwise specified by the relevant law and administrative regulations, in relation to payment for dividends in cash and other sums in HK dollar, the exchange rate shall be the average mid-point rate between the relevant foreign exchanges published by People's Bank of China last calendar week before the day of declaration of such dividends and other sums distribution.

Article 197 In accordance with the Articles, the board may decide to distribute the interim or special dividends upon approval or authorization by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 198 When distributing dividend to shareholders, the Company shall withhold and pay the payable tax of the dividend income for the shareholders based on the amount distributed pursuant to the provisions of China's tax law.

Save and except the rights attached to any share or as required by the provisions on issuance, dividends shall be declared and paid based on the paid shares entitled to the dividend. In this respect, any payment for the share made before the calling of payment shall not be deemed as paid shares, but any amount paid up in advance of calls on any Company's share may carry interest.

Article 199 The Company shall appoint receiving agents for holders of H shares to collect on behalf of the relevant shareholders the dividends distributed and other moneys payable in respect of the shareholding in H shares. The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements of the laws of the place(s), or the relevant regulations of the securities exchange(s), where the shares are listed. The receiving agent for shareholders of H shares appointed by the Company shall be a trust company incorporated under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong. Subject to China's relevant laws and statutes, the Company may exercise the right of confiscation to the dividend that is not claimed but such right shall not be exercised before the expiration of the relevant applicable time limit.	Article 140 Mandatory Provisions Sec. 1(c) of Appendix 13d Listing Rules Art.8, Zheng Jian Hai Han Article 19A.47 Listing Rules
